

I choose to be on the no call list because of the daily interruptions in our life. Supper is pleasant and my husband doesn't complain about the phone ringing off the wall. You get calls from all kinds of people that force you to be rude if i want to purchase items i will go shopping.